AFSC: 16G (any)

RDD: 6 Jan 12

ETL: 120 Days

LOCATION: CAOC

A Colonel serves as the ARC senior advisor and a Lieutenant Colonel serves as the deputy advisor. Both the senior and deputy are members of the AFRC or the ANG depending on the particular rotation. Each advisor serves for approximately 120 days in country. Rotation of the senior advisor and the deputy is staggered by a month to improve continuity. In addition to advising active duty commanders and their staffs, the ARC Advisors make visits to different locations and provide briefings and resolution to Guard or Reserve unique issues throughout the AOR. The ARC Advisors also support Guard or Reserve members that have questions or concerns upon their return to their home station.

Packages for consideration must include:

1) BIO/Resume

Note: Resume is optional; applicable accomplishments listed will be considered in selection process.

2) Recent Official Photo (exceptional waiver for emergent requirement positions)

3) Wing CC (or equivalent) Nomination/Approval

Forward completed packages to john.daniels@ang.af.mil and jason.thomas.3@ang.af.mil ; include position in subject line

Selectees will deploy in a volunteer status (Title 10-301) on MPA days requested utilizing CMAS AEF type MPA day request.

Nominees may be required to attend pre-deployment events. Rental vehicle will be authorized at TDY locations.

Requirements

- 1) Top Secret Clearance (exceptional waiver) and official Passport
- 2) No grade substitutions allowed
- 3) Be available to deploy for the entire established tour length

Optional items to enhance candidacy would include:

- 1) 1. Resume (military and/or civilian)
- 2) 2. Endorsements
- 3) 3. Amplifying information
