2. Position Description

Assist HAF FAM's in all wartime planning policies and procedures that affect the entire functional area in overseeing all aspects of the planning process and should fully understand the responsibilities of both the supported and supporting command functional planners.

Supporting MAJCOM and ARC FAM's play a vital role in the operational planning and execution process in keeping track of the availability of forces and equipment, providing UTC availability to MAJCOM war planners and AFPC/DPW functional schedulers, tracking readiness status and training levels, and coordinating with other FAMs on all wartime and exercise matters that affect their functional area. FAMs, working through their MAJCOM directorates (or equivalent) and in coordination with subordinate wing and unit commanders, advise their commanders on which unit(s)/individual(s) or type and amount of equipment should be selected to fill TPFDD requirements.

FAMs play a significant part in the Air Force operation planning process and their continual involvement in the war planning process is essential to accomplishing the Air Force's wartime mission.

FAMs, with approval of appropriate functional director, develop guidance with the primary purpose of maximizing their functional area's operational readiness and responsiveness to mission requirements considering the needs of the supported commander, the availability of CCDR-assigned forces, the ability of a functional area to implement the guidance, the effect the guidance will have on the supporting command, and the degree to which the guidance will enhance the readiness and availability of personnel and equipment.

FAM's will have an understanding of Air Force doctrine and policies regarding Air Force, force presentation and the planning policies, processes and systems used to support the joint planning process.

FAM's at all levels will use DCAPEs for all facets of Air Force war planning and execution.

FAM's establishes upgrade, continuation, and qualification training requirements for their field units and weapons systems for which the MAJCOM is designated as lead.

FAM's support U&TWs with functional and subject matter experts. MFM's who attend U&TWs will have voting authority and authority to commit MAJCOM resources to support new training requirements.

FAM's provide resources (manpower, equipment, and funding) to support new training requirements.

FAM's coordinate on enlisted specialty training waivers and provide recommendation.

FAM's coordinate on all MCR actions for their functional area.

FAM's may be called upon to represent functional area data at IPT's.

FAM's will interface with Weapon System Manager's to provide functional input for weapon system specific issues.

FAM's will coordinate on monitor all UTC/UMD actions with the A4M Readiness FAM.

FAM's may serve as Contract Engineering Technical Service (CETS) contract representative.

FAM's may manage programs aligned to their area of expertise.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS:

FAM's will coordinate all attendance, scheduling and travel actions with NGB/A4MO Branch Chief.
